Headline:
Rain and hill snow overnight. Turning colder and windier.

This Evening and Tonight:
Outbreaks of rain, persistent and occasionally heavy through the evening, turning wintry, especially over western hills, with a risk of snow to lower levels for a time. Clearer from the west with scattered showers by dawn, but increasingly windy. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Thursday:
A bright, cold and windy day with scattered showers, these occasionally wintry over the hills. Drier by the afternoon with any showers restricted to the Derbyshire hills. Maximum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Wintry on hills Friday, otherwise bright and breezy. Dry and bright with sunny spells Saturday as winds ease. Dry start Sunday, rain and snow possible later. Cold with overnight frosts.
